AAWC ANNOUNCES NEW LEVELS OF GIVING

In the past 14 years, the Asian American Women's Coalition (AAWC) has raised funds to enable deserving young women to advance themselves through higher education. This scholarship program has assisted 35 college students.

AAWC will continue to raise funds for its scholarship program. However, faced with new challenges resulting from the tremendous growth in the Asian population in the Greater Philadelphia area, AAWC will be developing and executing programs to serve women in the Asian community. It will also be collaborating with other non-profit organizations to address changing needs in the community. In conjunction with expanding its outreach program, AAWC plans to hire a part-time program coordinator.

Changes in AAWC's 2008 fundraising campaign will enable donors to have the option of contributing to the scholarship fund or to outreach programs that will assist women in the Asian American community.

The new Levels of Giving to AAWC are as follows:

Golden Phoenix - $6,000 donation* will be awarded to one (1) Asian American female student to attend a four-year college course

Dragon - $5,000 donation will be used for AAWC programs to address Asian American women's issues

Pheasant - $3,500 donation will support Asian American female students during four (4) years of college or fund programs for Asian American women's issues

Peacock - $1,500 donation will support Asian American female students during two (2) years of college or fund programs for Asian American women's issues

Jade - $1,000 donation from grass root organizations or individuals who share AAWC's vision of improving the quality of life for Asian American women.

All Levels of Giving will receive 10 dinner tickets to the AAWC Annual Banquet. This year's Banquet will be held on June 20th (Friday) at Joy Tsin Lau Restaurant in Chinatown.

*Of the $6,000 donation, 5,000 will go to scholarship and $1,000 in support of the scholarship banquet.
